

Christian Veterinary Missions of Canada (CVMC)
Confidentiality of Beneficiaries Policy

Beneficiary's Rights

CVMC shall strive in every way to respect the dignity and privacy of those who benefit from the organization's activities in pursuit of its objectives. Every effort will be made to:

- a. Take necessary precautions to protect the personal information of beneficiaries.
- b. Obtain consent from individuals for the collection, use or disclosure of their personal information.
- c. Encourage CVMC representatives and missionaries to respect the dignity and uniqueness of the people they serve. All CVMC representatives and missionaries will be required to read the CVMC beneficiary policy and abide by its guidelines
- d. Strive to respect the dignity and rights of its beneficiaries in all of its published or presented materials.